

CODE OF CONDUCT

Passion HealthCare (PHC) expects that its internal staff and health care professionals working through PHC to be familiar and practise according to the following Codes and Guidelines as facilitated by The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia.

- Registered Nurse Competency Standards
- Enrolled Nurse Competency Standards
- Code of Ethics for Nurses in Australia
- Code of Professional Conduct for Nurses
- Professional boundaries for Nurses
- Guidelines for mandatory Notifications

These delineate the minimum core competencies and expected standard of conduct/behaviour of all nurses.

They can be sourced at

<http://www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Codes-Guidelines-Statements/Codes-Guidelines>

By observing and practising according to Standards and Codes, along with all relevant legislation and regulations, in conjunction with Policies and Procedures as delineated by PHC and Clients, we as professionals in this industry aim to provide safe, professional services at the highest possible standards to those that require our services.

Regards,

The Passion HealthCare Team